

Format- and Film Change Easily Executed!

Dear customer,

Set-up times for packaging machines are always an important topic.

Set-up should be fast, trouble-free and last but not least safe.

Time is money!

Minimize set-up times for your ROVEMA machine and increase safety for your staff with our

ROVEMA lifting device for film reels and format sets.

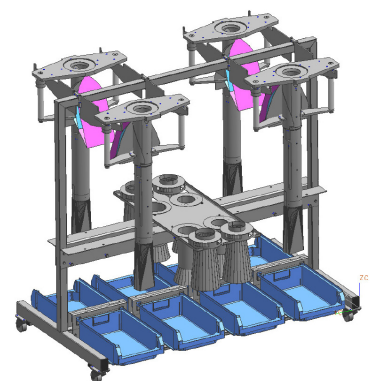

Convincing advantages:

- mobile unit for a simple and safe transport to the place of action
- easy adjustment according to machine installation height
- reduced risk of injuries because heavy lifting is being omitted

As an addition, you can use the ROVEMA format set trolley:

- easy fit, storage and transport even of heavy bagging machine format sets
- consumables, accessories and tools are stored orderly and kept in safe custody
- also a mobile unit and thus quickly in place in case of a format change

For further information about lifting device and format set trolley as well as prices and delivery times or in case of questions regarding your ROVEMA packaging machine, your contact persons at ROVEMA Service are always at your disposal.
